Wife in Predicament.

Variety at the Bluebled.

Variety at the Bluebird.

Joe Ryan, 'the wickedest man in pletures, who has gained this title because of his work as the heavy in the William Duncan serials, is in reality one of the kindest, quietest and bost dispositioned players to be found on the West coast. Byan is a product of the plains and as such is developed well along the lines of simplicity. He is playing one of the best villain parts in the newest Duncan serial, the sixth chapter of which will be shown at the Bluebird today and tomorrow. Short subjects, including dramas, comedy and News, are also on the bill.

"Crooked Straight" Pleases.

"Crooked Straight" Pleases.

Charles Ray as a sufcearcker who reforms for the sake of a girl is the attraction at the Colonial Theater this week. The picture is "Crooked Straight." produced by Thomas H. Ince for Paramount-Arteraft release. The scenes are laid in a small town and in the slums of a big city, where Ray as a country boy falls into evil way but eventually redeems himself. Marsery Wilson is the leading woman, and the picture was directed by Jerome Storm. A 'Snub' Pollard comedy and Kinogram News are added. Hart in Modiste's Shop.

Hart in Modiste's Shop.

He was a lumberman and because of his strength and bigness they had nick-mained him "Hardwood." Imagine this man inheriting a modiste's establishment and inding himself surrounded by mannequins! He who had hever ridden in an elevator or used the telephone in his life! That's the beginning of William S. Hart's latest picture "John Petticoats." It's a new type of Hart picture—filled with comedy and good, strong drams. It is the feature at the Isis this week.

Tom Mix Is Versatile.

Don't fail to see Tom Mix, the compuncher star, invincible in fight, irresistible in love, whose latest Fox picture, "The Speed Maniac," is at the Odeon Theater. This production marks another Mix success and has played to crowded houses, proving that Mix fails in this city are increasing daily. The auto race, Mix's brave defense of the lame child, his rescue of a baby and a lovely girl—these alone would make the piece worth seeing.

How Mix manages to escape with his life in some of the stunts he does is a puzzle to many of his admirers but they simply fail to comprehend the steadiness of his nerve and the brain work he applies to his feats.

"Tp the Road With Sallie."

THE DAY'S GOOD STORIES

A Wise Decision.
Footballer—"Do you know enough about football to act as referen?"
Jones—"I know enough about the game not to act as referee?"

"Locking up an Anarchist," said Bill the Burg, "is good for him. Bur it's kind o' tough on the other felters that have to live in the same jail."

"You remember when I got married two years ago?"
"I do."
"I came around looking for congratulations." "Yes, and you needn't come around now looking for sympathy."

Reassuring.

"The doctor says he'll let me know in a week whether I'm going to live or not."

"And what are you to do in the meantime?"

"He told me to take complete rest and, above all, not to worry about anything."

"The Had to Confess.

Hostess (to little Johnny, who is just leaving the party) -- Won't you Johnny-No, thank you. I couldn't eat any more.

Hostess—Well, put one in your like she's scattered herself all over the place, ain't no gentleman. That's what I say!"

On the Alert.

"What is Mr. Crabeoin's attitude to ward the committee of ladies who are raising funds to put union suits or South Sea Islanders?"

"One of watchful waiting."

"When the committee comes in one door. Mr. Crabeoin goes out of autother."

"But I haven't any friends who would pay enough to make it worth while protested the prisoner.

"All right. Then you write to our friends and tell 'em you have kidnaped us. We've got to get funds into this camp somehow."

A Just Grievance. "Somebody else has got to wait or that guy in the green suit," said Mag. g.e. the belle of the beanery. "What's the Stater, Mag." asked her—for that day—dearest friend. "He said, Pull yourself together, m. girl, and rush that order of ham an eggs.' Any guy that talks to a laid like she's scattered herself all over the place, ain't no gentleman. That's what I say?"
